EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Englishman papers make the announcement that twenty-five railway companies in Great Britain have resolved to issue, from and after January 1st next, railway stamps to the public of the denomination of fourpence (eight cents) and eightpence (sixteen cents) which shall carry parcels of two pounds and four pounds, respectively, throughout their whole systems. They have also agreed to accept parcels at these weights throughout the whole of their systems, and to grant an insurance up to $5. Some of the companies—among them the London and Southwestern, London, Brighton and South Coast, and Southeastern—have not come into the arrangement; but it is hoped, we are told, that they will do so, and also that the postoffice authorities will co-operate. The Pall Mall Gazette adds: "It would be difficult to overestimate the value to the public—who are, under existing arrangements, numerically fleeced by local carriers (express companies) and often subjected to the most unjustifiable extortion and inconvenience—of a really well-regulated parcel post. Shopkeepers, and, indeed, the trading classes generally, would derive great benefit from the adoption of a system securing the transmission of small parcels of goods with ease and regularity at reasonable and fixed charges."

We have received a copy of the Amador Times in which is republished the article criticising the county court (Brown J.) for which Mr. Webb, editor of the Amador Ledger has been sent to jail. The article was published after the adjournment of the court in September last. It is not an attack upon Brown personally, but upon the whole court for its stupidity and laxity in furthering the ends of justice, its expensive sessions which resulted in nothing, owing to the inability of the sheriff and all his men to find an important witness, who turned up all right when the jury had been forced to acquit for lack of his evidence. There is nothing in the whole article, (which we wish we had the space to reproduce) to cause any judge who is an honest man, to thirst for vengeance. Brown is evidently a Jack-in-office and the Ledger probably touched him on the raw by telling the truth. A man of Brown's calibre is unfit for the bench. California owes it to the press to lift him down and restore him to private life.

Duncan, the thieving banker, will probably escape punishment. Le Warne did it all, of course. That is why the detectives did not catch Le Warne. The detectives of San Francisco are as useless and corrupt a gang of rascals as can be got together. The spectacle of the editor of the Amador Ledger behind the bars will probably deter the press of San Francisco from telling the truth about the courts, which appear to be comfortable exhibition rooms where temporarily restrained criminals go to show themselves for a few hours before resuming liberty and business. Kearney's lamp-post advice to the robbed depositors of Duncan's bank was not so bad.

It must be a gratifying position to be a member of the California constitutional convention. The appropriation was exhausted the day before Christmas and it will take a month more, at least, to complete the work that has accumulated. The constitutional convention will now have no pecuniary reward for his time and labor and his only compensation will be to read the daily papers and learn that the public more and more holds to the belief that he is an unprecedented rascal or a historical ass.

"A Merry Christmas" met our ears from all directions yesterday.—Virginia Stage.
Such a colossal obstruction in the path must have been painfully discouraging to Merry Christmas. As it would have been quite impossible to climb the ear which met it from all directions, M. C. must have sat down and wept.

Deacon Parkinson is, we are sorry to observe, in troubled waters. He was arrested yesterday for having voted for several years while in an unnaturalized condition. It is also asserted by the persecutors of the pious Tribune editor that he is still an unimproved Britisher. We hope sincerely that a patriot of the Deacon's age and moral standing, will hurl his enemies back in confusion by triumphantly shaking in their malignant faces the documentary evidence of his political regeneration.

The San Francisco Post is fast earning a national reputation. The perfect gravity and inimitable stupidity of its paragraphs make it as prominent in the field of journalism as a properly built idiot asylum is in the landscape.

The Elko Independent man is bitterly opposed to low-necked dresses. Will he not feel offended if we courteously inquire if anything has happened recently—such as a failure of eyesight following baldness, or anything of that kind?

A writer in the Louisville Courier-Journal gives a little incident in reference to Shakespeare at a transpontine theatre in London: "Me lud, the Duke of Buckingham as harried?" "Aa's? Be hevings, then, erf with 'is blasted 'ead!"

The Democrats are settling down to the horrible conviction that they can't escape Cypher J. Tilden in 1880. He has got his wily old legs over the shoulders of the party and is determined to stick.

A practical joke is being played on Murphy, the temperance man. He has been invited to visit California and has innocently accepted the invitation.

R. May, a book agent, was arrested for burglary at Los Angeles last Saturday. The good work has begun, then. Keep it up. Never mind what the charge is. Jail 'em anyhow.

Eureka has a new poet who makes knees rhyme with praise. He is a Mongolian.

New York's millionaires.
New York, Dec. 26th.—The Times to-day reviews editorially the careers of the great millionaires of New York. It says: "Probably W. H. Vanderbilt is the richest man, and the only one of the chief city millionaires who do not draw revenues from rents and the profits of real estate, which has shrunk fully one-third since 1873. The Astor property, worth perhaps $60,000,000, then, is not worth over $60,000,000 to-day. Chief among the city millionaires are the Astors, the Rhinelanders, the Goellets, Mrs. A. T. Stewart, the Lorillards, the Schermerhorns, the Lenoxes, R. J. Livingston and Frederic Stevens, who together are worth between $100,000,000 and $150,000,000 in real estate. It is a singular fact that not one of the gentlemen named concerns himself personally about municipal affairs."

The same paper has a seven-column review of the career of Francis J. Moses, formerly of South Carolina, who it is said is now living on his wits in New York.

In a Fraternal Spirit.
[Bodie Standard.]
The Tybo Sun man says he "is hanging on the ragged edge of eternity" in consequence of a comment appearing in the Standard on his toplofty style of resurrecting the "moribund," as he happily calls the bread-and-butter period of his own existence, and refers to the writer in complimentary terms as an "animated whisky sign."

The Sun man is kindly informed that the person referred to is about to visit Tybo, and that he will not be left "hanging on the ragged edge" very long. If there is any choice in the undertaking establishments of his town we would in the most fraternal spirit recommend that he make an early choice.

Senator Bayard and the Presidency.
New York, December 26.—It is positively announced as coming from the friends and admirers of Senator Bayard that he is a candidate for the Presidency, with a strong assurance of financial backing from New York, which they expect to carry, with Connecticut and New Jersey, giving, with the solid South, the required majority in the electoral college. His friends are very sanguine of the success of the proposed alliance of the South with the East on a hard money platform.

A Kansas City Santa Claus.
St. Louis, Dec. 24.—A Kansas City dispatch says: "A novel feature of Christmas in this city will be a grand distribution of provisions and groceries to the poor by Mayor G. Shelby. At his suggestion the citizens generally contributed and an immense amount of edibles, and the use of a large number of sleighs having been also proffered, the provender will to-morrow be distributed among the worthy destitute of the city. The council-chamber, where the donations are stored, is filled to its utmost capacity. The undertaking is the first of the kind in this city and promises to be a most praiseworthy affair."

The "Times" Man's Troubles.
[Times-Review.]
Remember the poor, says the Post. We never forget them. Our greatest trouble is to get other people to remember them.

A Proposed New Silver Dollar.
CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—The Times Washington special says: The bill will be introduced after the re-assembling of congress to increase the value of the standard silver dollar to 480 grains and make it a legal tender and exchangeable for gold coin, the proposed dollars to be impressed with the same devices as the trade dollar, except that the word "one" shall be substituted for the word "trade," and the figures 480 for the figures 240. The bill will provide that whenever silver dollars shall be presented for exchange in such sums as to show the amount outstanding to be redundant, the secretary of the treasury may diminish or discontinue the manufacture of such coinage until otherwise ordered by him. It will also provide that any owner of silver bullion may deposit it at any mint to be formed into bars, as now provided by law, or dollars of the weight of 480 troy, as designated in the act. It also authorizes the secretary of the treasury to discontinue the receipt of such bullion when the dollars shall have become redundant, and that trade dollars of the United States shall be received by the government for all debts and obligations due it, to be received into dollars of 480 grains troy, which shall hereafter be the only authorized silver dollar. The bill will also provide that subsidiary silver coinage shall be exchangeable for gold coin at the treasury or sub-treasury at New York, at the pleasure of the holder, and authorizes and directs the secretary of the treasury to cause to be printed and kept in good condition, for circulation, fractional or postal currency, to the amount of $10,000,000 of the denomination of 25 and 50 cents, which shall be interchangeable with subsidiary silver coinage for convenience in the transmission of small sums through the mails.

Thieving Pension Agents.
LOUISVILLE (Ky.), Dec. 24.—A special from Mount Vernon to the Courier-Journal says: David O. Gibson, his two sons—Wm. P. and Thos. W. Gibson—and Samuel P. Moore, arrived here this morning in charge of two United States Marshals. They are charged with forgery under the pension laws of the United States. For several years they have been acting as United States pension agents in Rock Castle, Trigg county, and have drawn from the United States treasury more than $10,000 on false vouchers, and are also charged with having drawn money for pensioners who had been dead for years. These irregularities have been going on for years, but were not discovered until recently.

No Distinction Between Gold and Greenbacks.

WASHINGTON, December 26.—The assistant treasurer of the United States has been instructed to make no distinction between coin and legal tenders after the first of January. Checks for the payment of interest on the four per cent. loan, due on that day, are being prepared.

Hideos Suffering in Brazil.

Rio Janeiro, Dec. 23.—A telegram from Ceara, in North Brazil, reports that the deaths in the capital from smallpox number 600 daily. The distress in the interior of the province is appalling. The people are devouring carrion and the corpses of the dead.

Three Persons Burned to Death.
DUBLIN, Ontario, December 26.—The house of John O'Brien, near here, was burned last night, and his wife, son and daughter perished. Himself and other members of his family, walking through a furious storm to the nearest house, were badly frozen.

Revolution in Mexico.
MEXICO, December 5.—A revolution is going on in Guadalupe, caused by the levying of an onerous tax. Several citizens have been killed in the streets, and numbers of prominent gentlemen imprisoned.

The Best Paper.

The New Year GAZETTE will be the most complete, interesting and valuable newspaper ever issued in Reno.
There will be no "padding" to swell its size. Well written original articles on a variety of important subjects will fill its eight pages. It will be a paper that will do honor to the town.
By a typographical error it was stated yesterday that an addition of 2200 would be issued. It should have read 3200. If the value of the paper is properly appreciated this large edition will be found too small. The New Year Gazette should be sent everywhere. It will be sold, done up in wrappers for mailing, for 10 cents a single copy and $1 per dozen.

Locomotive Firemen's Ball.

The second annual ball of Piute Union No 59 of Locomotive Firemen, which takes place at Wadsworth on New Year's eve, promises to be the social event of the holiday season.
Everybody, almost, who is anybody is going. The music will be under the direction of Professor Varney. A free car will be run between Reno and Wadsworth to carry parties holding ball tickets to and from the ball. The special car will leave Reno at 5 o'clock P. M. December 31st, returning will leave Wadsworth at 4:30 o'clock on the following morning. Tickets can be procured of members of the order and on the train.

Looking at Our Mines.

C. W. Frazer, a San Francisco mining man, is here for the purpose of examining the mines of the district, which are attracting increased attention from capitalists. One first-class development would lead to large investments and give Reno a tremendous lift.

A PUZZLER.

What is to be Done With Mr. Sharp?

There are two ways of making a living in this world which may be relied upon. One is to work like a cart horse and the other is to do nothing at all. Mr. Sharp, of Reno, has adopted the latter plan, and lying upon his idle back triumphantly asks the community what it is going to do about it? A gentleman came into the office of Judge Bowker to-day and asked for information on that point. He had, he said, furnished food to said Sharp, whose cabin is near the gentleman's residence, for the past two years. The other necessities Sharp had stolen from him and others. He was tired of Sharp, not so much because of the expense as the annoyance.
If the Judge would be good enough to lock Sharp up somewhere he would almost be willing to pay Sharp's board and lodging. Sharp had been celebrating Christmas by getting drunk and while in that condition had approachingly damned his benefactors each and all, singly and by name, and then in a lump, and requested in a three-mile voice to be treated to the sight of any or all of them that he might punch their purse-proud heads. More Christmas whiskey had caused Sharp to seek his bed, where he was, the gentleman said, lying in a condition of filth disgraceful alike to Sharp and humanity. Judge Bowker thought Sharp had better be sent to the poor farm. Happy thought! the gentleman said, brightening up. That's just where Sharp ought to be. But Judge Bowker observed that the poor farm was out of his committing jurisdiction. It would be necessary to see some of the county commissioners about it. The gentleman went out and saw some of the county commissioners and came back looking depressed. The county commissioners, the gentleman said, did not view Sharp favorably. They were sure he would run away if sent to the unguarded poor farm. Sharp ought to be sent to jail. Judge Bowker would endeavor to send him there if the gentleman would be good enough to swear out a complaint charging Sharp with vagrancy. The gentleman did not feel like taking the responsibility of swearing to a complaint against Sharp.
Sharp, he said, was undoubtedly a bore but he was not such a criminal as all that came to. Couldn't they just take him and care for him somewhere? No, they couldn't do that for Sharp. Damn Sharp, said the gentleman, and he further observed that he supposed he had to keep on feeding Sharp after he came out of jail even if he were sent there, and in that case, he thought the best thing he could do would be to hire a Chinaman to wash Sharp and fix up his cabin for the winter. Judge Bowker looked satisfied at this disposition of Sharp. The gentleman didn't, and glared when the GAZETTE reporter suggested that Sharp might find employment on the local staff of the Virginia Stage. Sharp keeps up the horizontal drunk.

This Wintry Weather.

The weather is moderating. At 6 o'clock this morning the thermometer marked five degrees above zero and at 7 o'clock the mercury was seven degrees above. This was ten degrees warmer than at the same hour yesterday morning. Notwithstanding, there is more ice in the river to-day than yesterday. In places where the water is shallow and forced into a narrow and so rapid channel by the ice that it cannot freeze, a spongy sort of ice has formed at the bottom, a curious and striking proof of the intense cold—for it must be considerably colder on the river than up town.
The ditches are frozen over and the ice bears the weight of men and horses. Donald McMillan's V. flume is frozen solid. There has been terrible havoc made among house plants and if Jack Frost should venture to appear personified in Reno the exasperated ladies would make him bald in short order.

Be Virtuous.

Moralists are now springing up everywhere, giving advice about how the new year should be spent. A good beginning, everybody agrees, is absolutely necessary. It is easy to point out what that beginning should be.
Young men should swear off, resolve to stay home nights, subscribe for the GAZETTE and leave the rest to fate.
When it is remembered that the New Year journal, giving all the news of the day, besides a large quantity of other amusing and instructive matter, costs for a week only the price of two glasses of beer, the folly of drinking appears in a blaze of what a contemporary calls electoral light.

Nearly a Row.

"Sir!" cried an excited stranger in a Virginia street saloon last night, "Sir! you can't make me believe any such impossible nonsense!"
"Come over to the GAZETTE office and I'll prove it," said the Renoitte, with a flushed face.
They came and the stranger was convinced that the WEEKLY GAZETTE, an eight-page paper, containing forty columns of first-class reading matter, was really sold for $3 50 a year. He subscribed.

The Ice Companies.

For the past two days a force of thirty men has been employed in cutting the ice on the Mutual company's pond at Essex. It is twelve inches thick. The Crystal company's crop is a little backward, owing to the break in the reservoir which occurred a few weeks ago. The ice is now nine inches thick.

JOTTINGS.

—Dr. Woods, of Pyramid, is in town.
—Hon. J. P. Foulks, governor of Verdi, is in Reno.
—There are ten patients at the county hospital.
—The county jail holds the same old five prisoners.
—Why is it that teamsters always wear high-heeled boots?
—The frame of the new Catholic convent is now nearly all in place.
—George Becker has cut and laid in 80 tons of fine ice from above the dam.
—The skating on the meadows is magnificent. There is plenty of room and the ice is smooth.
—The weatherwise predict a snow storm inside of four days. The weatherwise usually know all about it.
—Sixteen car-loads of cattle, belonging to Mr. Todhunter, passed west this morning.
—The dead walls are covered with the posters of Weathersby's Froliques, who will be here January 6th.
—The hearing of the Lamb-Walker contest for the office of sheriff will be taken up again on Thursday next.
—Indians loaded down with deer skins are coming in to make themselves comfortable during the winter.
—There are messages at the Western Union office for Jacob McKissick, Wm. Earlworthy and Mrs. F. J.
Fletcher.
—Judge Bowker's court has been occupied to-day in trying the case of W. H. Tredway vs. Courtois & Boyd, a suit to recover $100 for services rendered.
—The retiring county officers are hard at work getting their books into apple-pie order to hand over to their successors on the first Monday of next month.
—Allen C. Bragg is looking for a place to hang up a lithograph of the London and Liverpool offices of the company for which he is agent. Better let the GAZETTE have it.
—The man who has not during the past week said forty times a day "Pretty cold weather, ain't it?" will be rewarded with a copy of the New Year, eight-page GAZETTE by calling at this office.
—At the last meeting of Truckee lodges, I. O. O. F., the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: J. C. Haynes, noble grand; Harry Brown, vice grand; J. V.
Peers, secretary; Isaac Fredrick, treasurer.
—Constable Barlow returned this morning from an extended trip through California. He went as far south as San Bernardino. He reports everything dried up down that way, and the thin-blooded inhabitants suffering from cold.
—A Truckee Bridegroom.
The readers of the GAZETTE may remember that about four months ago Mr. Neways, a young gentleman of Truckee, was married to a belle of that mountain village. Mention was made of the interesting fact at the time, as the happy couple were spending their honeymoon in Reno. The young gentleman called at this office, being honored by the acquaintance of the editor, at the time, and among other things said:
"You know, my boy, that I've been a pretty hard case in my time. We've whooped it together often. What?
You don't remember it? What are you giving us, taffy? Well, anyhow, I've dropped on myself, and that sor-ried man that drinks is a brute, and I've sworn off for life. No man that has the luck to marry an angel can be too good to her. Oh, I tell you, my wife is just the dearest, sweetest—" Here he was choked off and nothing more was seen of him in the GAZETTE office, till last evening, when he came in, took a chair and remarked:
"Pr' cole nigh, ain't? Beshlie.
Ole umen's uper Truckee. Shot I'd take shipin down an' sheer boys." That's always the way with Truckeeites.
—New Use for Wood.
The live oak which grows on the western slope of the Sierra is a very tough, hard wood, almost useless for fuel or any other purpose. It has been discovered that in all machinery bearings, such as have heretofore run in brass and babbitt metal, this wood makes a superior surface and runs without heating or wearing. The Truckee Lumber company has several bearings and cranks running in such sockets, and the experiment is being watched with interest by machinists.
—Con. Emeralds Matters.
Lumber is being hauled to-day to the Con. Emeralds mine, where a building 28x50 will be erected. There are six men at present employed in the mine, but when the new hoisting machinery, which is already on the ground, is put in place, the force will be largely increased.
—HARD THINGS TO DO.—There are three things that no man can keep—a pencil, a pointed joke and an appointment with a dentist. There are three things no woman can do—cross before a horse, hurry for a horse car and pass S. N. Davidson's jewelry window without calling and examining some of his fine holiday presents on exhibition, which he offers for sale cheaper than ever. 414 1/2
—COMPETITION is said to be the life of trade. This may be so, but it opens a field to unscrupulous merchants to palm off spurious for the genuine article. This is not so at F.
Fredrick's jewelry store, for although his prices are lower than ever before, he will warrant everything sent out of his store as represented. 413 1/2
—NEW YEAR'S EYE BALL.—At Kim-ble's Hall. Extra music will be furnished for the occasion. Dancing will be kept up till all are satisfied. Tickets, admitting gentlemen and ladies, $1 25. 420 1/2 J. W. SCOTT.

Talk is Cheap.

And so are fine clothing, boots shoes, hats and gentlemen's and boys' fine furnishing goods, if you go to the right place to get them. This is a mighty important point, for some people who assert that they sell cheap do nothing of the kind. I do not boast when I say that I defy competition in prices in anything in my line. Besides this I have only at price. I have no preferred customers.
Everybody is treated alike at my establishment. My stock is the largest and most complete ever offered in any part of this State.
Everything I have is new. No old, musty and out-of-date goods can be found on my shelves.
I receive daily by rail and express the latest and best goods, which are obtained at first hand and sold at prices below those now prevailing in New York and Chicago. Let the people come and judge of my prices and examine my stock before going into those hum-bugging, Cheap John shops, in which they drum into the ear of the customer that they sell at cost and even below cost. Anybody with common sense must know that they lie.
No storekeeper sells goods for the fun of the thing. I make a profit on everything I sell, as every honest merchant does, and don't print foolish falsehoods in the vain hope of deceiv-ing the public. One must make a profit to live. I particularly call attention to my full stock of fancy underwear, such as is kept nowhere else in Reno. This class of goods form one of my specialties. Remember the place.

vada—Pianos, organs and all kinds of musical instruments sold on the installment plan just received an immense stock of Holiday Britania sets of dishes, vases, Toilet, wine and smoking sets, Mustache Cups, Mugs and flower pots. The finest and lowest priced Albums that have ever been heard of. Games of Authors, Across the Continent, etc, wall pockets and brackets. This stock will be sold very cheap. Bird Cages and Books, Toy Pianos, Jumping Jacks, Magic Lanterns, Jack in Box, Rocking Horses, Wagons, Carts, Wheel-nificent and very large stock of dolls, wax, worsted, and China, Papiermache, French kid with flexible joints, walking and talking dolls.

Jeff invites special attention to these dolls, as he is determined to sell them as cheap as our people will buy. On account of Brookings' store being too small to exhibit his wonderful stock, he has leased the Reno Furture Store, where he invites everybody to call and see his goods, and if they can go through his rooms without buying something to make the hearts of the little ones glad, they can beat me. 414 1/2

A CONUNDRUM.—"You are a mule, sir," said an irate man to his son. "And you are my father, sir," was the quick reply. "And it is no use to deny the relationship." The old gentleman attempted to assume a severe look, but a faint smile stole over his face, and to reward the wit of his son, went to S. N.
Davidson's Jewelry Store and selected one of the finest Watches and Chains for him as a Christmas present. They both were made happy, as the son returned the compliment again. 414 1/2

Dr. Mary Walker's Discovery.
New York, Dec. 17.—Dr. Mary Walker comes to the front with the latest "true version" of the Charley Ross story. She says that when he disappeared she hastened to his parents, and gave them not only condolence, but also money, and her personal efforts to fathom the mystery. She lived in the family for some time, which led her to believe that all was not right, and she finally discovered that Charley's father had put the little boy out to be heard with a family who were in the conspiracy. She says she did not expose the fraud, because it took her many months to find out where the boy was kept. She claims that Ross has made large sums of money out of the sympathies of the public, and that he has offered to pay her handsomely if she would keep her knowledge to herself. The boy would have been discovered long ago, and, indeed, arrangements were once made to have the child found in St. Albans, Vermont, but it was known that he would expose the fraud, and so he has been kept secluded. She says that within three weeks she has seen and spoken with the child, and that she is acquainted with his entire history since the supposed abduction. She will publish a book in two or three weeks containing the complete story of what she calls the greatest hoax ever perpetrated upon the American people. A good many people have given considerable credence to Dr. Mary's story, while others think it is a shrewd device for raising the wind in a forthcoming literary effort.

Lynch Law in Alaska.
PORT TOWNSEND, Washington Territory, Dec. 23.—Tom O'Brien was killed to-day at Wrangle, Alaska, by a man known as "Recky Mountain" Boyd. The murderer was immediately taken in charge by the enraged citizens and tried before a jury of their own selection. He was found guilty and hanged in accordance with the sentence imposed by his self-constituted judges.

HYPOPHOSPHITES.
THIS DISCOVERY
Is the result of a series of Scientific Experiments based upon the theory that "for the successful cure of Wasting Diseases, the Nervous system must be made vigorous and healthy." One of the first symptoms of disease affecting either the Liver, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, or Genital Organs, is a loss of nervous power.
This is followed by muscular weakness, wast-iness, and emaciation of all the organs, which depend upon them for health or involuntary muscular action, the weaker the system, the more the organs suffer, and the weaker the system, the more the organs suffer, and the more the organs suffer, the weaker the system, and that they must be treated directly in order to speedily and permanently cure diseases of the organs which they control, became convinced, after months of experiment, that no other preparation produced such potent and direct effects upon the nervous system as his maladies.

Chronic Dyspepsia,
Asthma,

mus or Wasting of the System, Anemia, or terrupted and Feeble Action of the Heart, Surrounding Fatigue and Air Passages leading thereto, and Debility from various causes, Indigestion and habitual Constipation of the muscles and nerves of the stomach and bowels.

In such cases, FELLOWS' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites has proved itself of the most valuable service by inducing healthy peristaltic action of the intestines. The evacuations soon become copious and healthy, without producing the effect of purgative medicine.
Weakness of the joints and Muscles, Infirmity of the Blood, and Inward Weakness may be cured by attention to the regularly described doses, and by due regard to the
